

$2.00 Per Year. Five Cents a Copy

DELIA, ALBERTA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1953

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

1,769-Mile Pipeline Is Being Built From Alberta To Sarnia

—By George

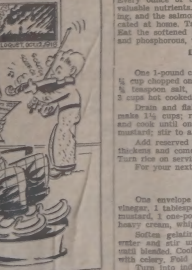

Travellers in Montana and Idaho

= GEMS OF THOUGHT =

...set a forty example is the
...request a man can leave

—By George

— 100 —

ake advantage of the liquid as well as the meat bones, too, because they contribute added calcium.

(4 servings)

1 cup sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, 1 can salmon, 1 cup finely diced celery, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup chopped, or $\frac{1}{4}$ cup icy-cold evaporated milk, whipped in cold water and vinegar. Place over boiling in whipped cream or whipped evaporated milk.

individual molds; chill until firm. Unmold and ser-

Devised caressed salmon served over fluffy rice and something new to serve your family with mayonnaise or cucumber cream dressing with tomato slices and salad greens.

CUCUMBER CREAM DRESSING
(8 servings)

One-half cup well-drained, finely chopped heavy cream, whipped to teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon lemon juice.

Do not peel cucumber, wash and chop.

Combine all ingredients.

One-half cup well-drained, finely chopped cucumbers, 1 cup heavy cream, whipped, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon vinegar.

HEALTH

Much Can Be Done

By BENNETT CEMF

at the office," a husband confessed in an unguarded moment.

World Happenings In Pictures

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

COULDN'T BEAR IT—The camera-focusing tourist, left, was delighted to be able to take a moving picture of this black bear in the Great Smoky Mountains of North Carolina. But when the animal proved to be a hum at heart and moved in for a closeup, the lady shrank—as the empty car window at right shows.

WOO! QUEEN—Beating 60 rival beauties from all over Texas, Kathryn E. Greenaway, of Eden, was crowned "Miss Wool of 1953". The 20-year-old Texas Field College valedictorian will make a nationwide tour under auspices of Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association.

THE LATEST in mink's shoe styles intrigue Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent at the Shoe and Leather display in Montreal. At left is Claire O. Collins, president of the Shoe and Leather Council of Canada, and centre, Lucien Roblin, of Quebec, chairman of the Fair.

ARMED BRITISH TROOPS march past scattered home dwellings on Water Street in Georgetown, British Guiana, where the British government removed the prime minister and five cabinet officials from office on Oct. 8. The crowd's intent was charged with having Moscow rather than Britain and United Kingdom troops were immediately sent out to the area to maintain order in the event of an outbreak.

UP TO PAR AGAIN—When Ginger Jane Froman was horribly smashed up in a Lisbon plane crash in 1943, she thought she'd never walk again, much less play golf. But here she is, driving off on a New York link, with her badly mangled right arm and metal-braced right leg apparently unable to stymie her skill and spirit.

AWARD OF THE QUEEN'S COBINATION MEDAL to Mr. Holland, president of The Last Post for the Province of Quebec and the Dominion of Canada, has been made in recognition of the 35 years of service in the work of the Fund. Dr. Lamb receives the medal for his work on behalf of physical education and health in Canada.

HE'S A SHARK AT THIS—One of the thrills provided for visitors to Beata Island, Dominican Republic, is the sight of this sailor catching sharks beheaded. Above, he importantly shows the loathly monster's nose, preparatory to bringing him in.

BUTTONS UP RECORD—Just two hours old and still a bit bewildered, Cincinnati's newest girl stands on wobbly legs beside proud mama "Bertina" (Bertina) holds the record for producing babies in captivity, the new-born being her eighth.

SMILING SECRETARY—Lt. Hon. Anthony Eden, British Foreign Secretary, looking in the pink following recovery from a recent illness, smiles broadly and stretches out his hands as he addresses the Conservative Party Conference at Margate, England. Mr. Eden returned to active duty last week.

POTENT PEGASUS—Rita is a certain school in San Juan, Puerto Rico, that, before school getting fresh with teacher Teodoro in Jose Ariza, whom whose extraordinary hobby is weightlifting. Named "Mr. Puerto Rico of 1953" he represented the island in the "Mr. America" contest in New York.

STEPS TOWARD SAFETY—Hollywood starlet Rita Moreno has no fear of the ladder anymore—thanks to a new gadget designed to prevent just that. The device consists of shoes and stabilizers attached to the feet of the ladder.

UNIQUE—Mrs. John Crowell has the distinction of being the only woman resident of York Air Base, Greenland, the northernmost permanent base of the U.S. Northeast Command. Her husband is an official of the weather bureau there.

VIGIL REWARDED—Tension is keen in human and dog alike as members of the Bethesda-Cherry Chase, Md., rescue squad administer oxygen to a collie pup, removed from a deep hole just moments before. As the pup's mother, "Cherry" and owner, Mrs. George W. Jones, keep vigil, Rick Shuman, (left), and Charles Cherry bring the incident to a happy ending. The pup soon was frisking about.

LAST HUNTER RESCUED—Alphonse Berube, 44-year-old native of Verdon, Que., has returned to civilization after six days of wandering in the wilderness of northern Quebec. Laurentian Mountains. Berube was lost when a friend and he separated while hiking through the woods. In the photo above, Alphonse chats with his rescuers as he recuperates in a Montreal hospital. The hunters who found him wandering through the woods a few miles from their camp drove him back to the metropolis.

ARCTIC MEMORIAL—E. Fry, of the Department of Mines and Technical Surveys, Ottawa, unveils a monument dedicated to the memory of nine men who lost their lives in a 1910s plane crash at Alert on Ellesmere Island in July, 1940. The monument will stand as a permanent reminder of the sacrifices of those who helped to pioneer and subside the Arctic, and to the co-operative effort of Canada and the United States, whose citizens work together in an international joint meteorological program.

